Here is the report in less than one month of the event.

Useless to say that the organizers are working hard in order to optimize the parking slots to guarantee to all the participants a place worthy of their enthusiasm.

The Pininfarina exhibition looks very promising with next to the Concept Car "Ferrari Rossa", another Ferrari, known as "Pinin", and built with 1 specimen only.

The celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the Belgian National Team (ENB) will be well attended by those who have participated in this adventure. Without doubts the adrenalin will go up when the Ferrari 500 TRC which finished 7th the 24 hours of Mans 1957 will go for few laps of the Ardennes circuit!

The Concours d'Elegance will proceed entirely on the site and some places are still available. The spiders Alfa Romeo are registering from all over the places and show if it were still necessary, the motivation of the "Alfisti". Lamborghini will welcome its guests in a new location having an incredible view on the famous "Raidillon". Finally, Francorchamps Motors will take advantage of the event for launching a great public relations action and will offer to the visitors the new models of Ferrari and Maserati.

Let's point out that the car park is free for the spectators who can access the paddocks for 7 € per person.
