

Spaltalia

June 17 & 18 2006

One complete weekend dedicated to the Italian cars!

For its 5e anniversary, Spaltalia is pleased to announce that its 2006 edition will be held over the complete weekend of 17 and 18 June. The success of the past years, the growing number of participants and spectators, but also the requests of the partners, have comforted the organizers in proposing a whole weekend devoted to the Italian car and design within the surroundings of the circuit of Spa-Francorchamps

A tribute to Abarth and Lancia.

1906 is important for the Italian car industry because it is on November 29 of this year that Vincenzo Lancia registers the company which bears its name, Lancia & the CIA Fabbrica Automobili. Spaltalia saw a steady growing number of Lancia taking part in the event since its beginnings. In collaboration with the Club Lancia Belgio we will celebrate the 100e anniversary of the make with an exhibition which will be especially dedicated including the most beautiful pieces of this great line of cars.

Carlo Abarth is an attractive character and it is with a lot of pleasure that Spaltalia will house the "Abarth World Meeting 2006". The largest collectors already answered positively and we think that the exhibition and the demonstrations dedicated to the make of the Scorpion will be worth the journey alone. With the active support of the Abarth

Squadra Storica, we invite all the owners for taking part and we look forward being contacted for more details.

Innovations.

New activities are developed to make the weekend even more exciting for the participants and for the spectators. Saturday morning, a demonstration of hill climb on the new portion of the circuit will take place where the Abarth prototypes having animated the European Championship of Hill Climb will be the guest stars. Saturday and Sunday, a rally special stage will see, amongst other makes, various models of Lancia and Abarth having animated another World Championship, the Rally's one and in particular the editions of the Eighties and Nineties. Saturday afternoon, a rally balade open to all, will take along the participants through the most beautiful roads of the region. And to please everyone, the commercial area will be increased to accomodate various shops of all kinds of Italian products.

The "classics".

As usual, Alfa Romeo, Ferrari, Fiat, Lamborghini, Maserati, and the others will take part. We will support all the initiatives coming from these makes which have supported Spaltalia for 5 years. The traditional activities, which made the success of the event will be offered and improved. There are the Grande Parade, first runs in Ferrari and the free laps on the circuit for sporting cars. Also, the traditional Concours d'Élegance which gains each year in notoriety and which will be supported this year by faithful partners. Again, Spaltalia is the event not to be missed and we ask you to pencil the dates of 17 and 18 June 2006 with red (and green) ink in your diaries. Tickets and registration forms will be soon available and we give you appointment on the circuit of Francorchamps next June.
